The Mason LINE

by Chan Mason

We are writing this column on Independence Day and we would like to pass on to you an article written by P. R. Hayward, a good many years ago. We have saved the little clipping on The Creed of the Famous Fourth because we think it represents a pretty clear, concise reason for celebrating this famous day.

It is the Birthday of America!

Today, as I think of my Country, I make faith in her an article of my creed.

This land of mine was garnered in the long ago by the labor and courage of my ancesters. They tapped its mines, explored its forests, planted its soil, founded its cities. They wrote its laws, fought its battles, established its schools and its churches. They welded its scattered parts into a single nation.

So, because of them, I believe in America.

In the years since, a host of other men and women have labored to pass this nation on to me, greater than they received it. For their sakes, I believe in America.

Today, I hold in honor those who seek unselfishly to hand America on to the future, better than it came to them.

Because of these, I believe in America.

Seems a shame that so much of the advantages of good school site selection gained through the foresightedness of our present school administration and past and present school boards has been lost because the community has not kept pace with this type of long range planning.

The lack of sidewalks makes it necessary to transport by bus a large number of smaller children to and from school. The cost is high for this service and worst of all, provides safe transportation for only a small portion of our school population.

— ML —

We sincerely believe this problem ranks high on the priority-list of community tasks to be solved. And we don't mean that the problem should serve as a vehicle to promote incorporation, annexation or the like. But a sincere attempt should be made to eliminate the red tape, confusion, etc. that accompanies every effort of groups and neighbors who have decided they would like a sidewalk and curbings on their block.

— ML —

We heard the remark recently that at least some good has come out of the advent of the automobile. It has practically eliminated horse stealing!

County Zoning Changes Approved By Supervisors

It will cost $50 to file for a county zoning reclassification in the future, it was announced by Dr. Willis Miller, county planning director. Former cost was $25. Filing fee for zoning variance will remain $10, he said. Reclassification means what the word indicates. If property is changed from one classification to another, like R-1 to R-2-A, the $50 will be charged.

Seven other changes have been approved by the board of supervisors. They are:

1. A section making construction of breezeways easier. The old section required at least 50 per cent of the passageway to be a wall.

2. A section allowing Miller's "duly authorized representative" to handle certain duties now restricted to Miller only.

3. A section allowing railroads to plant crops and put off-street parking lots in their rights-of-way in the county.

4. A section allowing temporary storage of buildings moved in by a contractor. Only two industrial zones are affected and a special permit also will be required before such structures as war surplus barracks are stored.

5. A section requiring all private garages to be at least 10 feet from the street line—even on sloping lots. Previously garages were allowed on the property line under certain hillside conditions. Under the new rule the planning commission will be allowed to issue special permits in exceptional cases.

6. A section changing the rules for fence heights. Front yard fences are limited to 42 inches, backyard fences to 60 to 72 inches and patio-type walls to the height of adjoining building.

7. A section to simplify the procedure for obtaining zone variances where no objections are filed. The board of supervisors will be required to hold hearings when objections are filed against a variance.

Baptist Church Has Record-Breaking $4,000 Collection

The First Baptist Church of Lemon Grove had a record breaking day this past Sunday, when each department in the Sunday School brought forward an offering to help raise the third quarterly payment on the property that they recently purchased from the Seventh Day Adventist. The majority of the money was raised through the sale of the church notes. The people enthusiastically responded to this "Victory Day" drive and many of them made sacrifices to bring a love offering. Consequently, when the day was ended over $4,000.00 had been laid on the altar for general purposes and toward the property payment.

The previous Friday the Daily Vacation Bible School that had been in session for two weeks was completed with a splendid record. With this fine beginning in the summer months the pastor feels confident that there will be little or no summer slump as is usually experienced and dreaded during July and August.

To help combat this summer laxity that is usually shown, the church has named July as Loyalty Month. Each member is urged to sign a card pledging to be at all of the Sunday Services and Wednesday night services unless providentially hindered. Reverend Rochelle believes that the obvious increase in attendance Sunday was due to the cooperation in the promotion of Church Loyalty Month.

Annual Court Teresa Family Picnic to Be Held at Collier Park

Annual family picnic for members of Court Teresa of Avila, No. 1580 will be held at Collier Park Sunday, July 17, according to Mrs. R. L. Woestman, social chairman. Each family is to bring their own lunch. There will be games and prizes for the children. These plans were completed at the regular meeting of the court held Tuesday evening, July 5 at the St. John of the Cross auditorium, Mrs. F. J. Rosiak, grand regent, presiding.

Chairmen serving for the coming year were introduced, and gave their reports. Social welfare, Mrs. John Korpita; extension, Mrs. H. L. Harrison, Mrs. K. C. Gaddis; education, Mrs. J. F. Mathews; legislation, Mrs. W. D. Henshaw; share-the-faith, Mrs. J. H. Feuling; confraternity, Mrs. A. T. Watson; publicity, Mrs. V. M. Hall, Mrs. C. E. Kirby; courtesy and hospitality, Mrs. John Heim, Mrs. D. J. Wagner; ways and means, Mrs. R. T. Mulroy; social, Mrs. R. L. Woestman; program, Mrs. R. S. Kotnik.

HEGLAND'S VISIT WILL BE FRIDAY

The Homeland area will get more understanding of legislation in 1955 as well as future issues and a full report from Sacramento, Friday at 8 p.m. in the Golden Avenue School, Room 10, Lemon Grove, when Assemblyman Sheridan Hegland, 77th Assembly District, will be honored by the Homeland Democratic Club.

Other guests will include top-ranking Democratic leaders throughout San Diego County. The public is especially invited and various organizations will be represented.

Legislator Hegland points out that he is interested in recommendations for the maintaining and defending of welfare of all Californians.

He will also answer a list of leading questions on bills to resume in the near future, which were only half settled in the 1955 legislature.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

The members of the Lemon Grove Fire Department would like to commend Mr. Hal Johnston for his vigilance and prompt action in reporting fires since his appointment, his latest one being a trailer fire in the 7900 block on Broadway, 3:55 a.m. June 30, 1955.

Aside from fires, he has also called in numerous hydrants which have been hit by autos and his prompt action has resulted in saving thousands of gallons of water.

We feel that this man is very valuable to the fire service as well as to the merchants.

Capt. Harry R. Alexander

(Editor's note: Hal Johnson is the Chamber of Commerce sponsored patrolman whose pay is subscribed to by local business firms.)

Dear Editor:

Recent events have prompted me to write this letter.

I cannot console myself with the idea that Lemon Grove is to become a Ghost Town. It does not take a mathematician or Doctor of Science to see what the stumbling block is. In the past few years, Lemon Grove has enjoyed a phenomenal upward growth inspiring certain people to seek municipal government of some sort.

The result was a concerted effort by some to incorporate (which experts have stated would be the best thing for the area).

However due to the uninterested views of many and the concerted efforts of a few (who have it made as the saying goes) the incorporation attempt failed.

Now, a committee was recently appointed by a group of leading business and professional men of the area, to assemble the facts and figures regarding annexation to either La Mesa or San Diego, and AGAIN this small but powerful group, exerting their power, but keeping silent on these matters, have caused an eruption of disgruntled beefing and some name calling which is certainly a shameful and uncooperative situation.

To own a small business in Lemon Grove, to strive for success regardless of the extent, to try and look forward to a clean prosperous place to live, is nearly disheartening.

However I feel that there are still a number of people, interested enough and with enough intestinal fortitude to sit down and solve these problems like gentlemen and businessmen, calling their shots and letting the chips fall where they may.

I would like to see everyone interested in bucking this small but powerful combine drop a card or letter to this paper.

This will signify how many feel as I do and would like see a Booster Club for the betterment of OUR Lemon Grove.

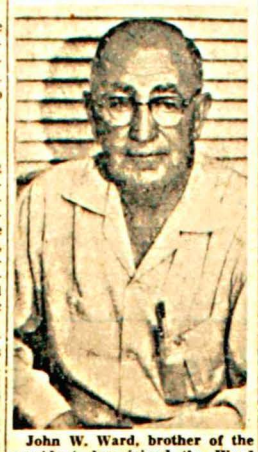

Address cards to "Boosters," P. O. Box 146, Lemon Grove.

23 GUESTS AT SURPRISE PARTY FOR McMAHONS

Unexpected guests for lunch, 23 in all, was the problem faced by Mrs. Charles McMahon of 7283 Central, Lemon Grove, Tuesday, July 5 at noon. The problem was solved quickly when she learned that each guest had brought her favorite dish to share with others. The guests were the members of the executive board of the Vista La Mesa Parent-Teacher Association, who had come to wish her happiness in her new home.

Mr. and Mrs. McMahon moved to the Vista La Mesa area three years ago, and during that time Mrs. McMahon was active in the unit, having just completed a two year term as treasurer. They purchased the property on Central Street and have remodeled it and moved there recently.

After the potluck luncheon, the afternoon was spent in discussion and planning of Parent-Teacher work.

Mrs. McMahon was presented a gift for her home in remembrance of the time spent as a member of the association.

Lack of Local Government is Sad, Men's Club Says

A dismal future for Lemon Grove in its present lack of government was pictured by members of the Men's Club Friday.

Chairman pro-tem Frenchy Faucher said that it was apparent that the club wanted to do nothing about the governmental situation and that discussions should be closed. The club had voted against taking action on annexation to La Mesa, San Diego, or incorporating.

George Casteel, local realtor, said that districts might serve the need for services and that county counsel should be asked to meet with the club for an explanation of how it should be done.

Judge Luther Hussey said that it was "Time to quit kidding ourselves and forming committees. Our problems are being solved for us," he stated. It is being solved by the community being nibbled away via piece-meal annexation to San Diego and La Mesa, he pointed out.

Judge Hussey said that there had long been a plan to "keep the peasants busy" whenever local government was up as an issue. "They (obstructors) get you to form committees, start study groups and go over the same ground again and again."

Dan Apra, Congregational Church pastor, said that members of the community should be interested in saving what is left. "I don't know why there is a move of resistance to local government," he said. He also said that local government was impossible until the average citizen wanted it.

Lee Sparks, realtor who headed the study committee for annexation to La Mesa, said "High rents for business property were predicated on future business." This business will not be forthcoming, especially with the competition it now faces unless we resolve our present local problems, he pointed out.

During the meeting Kenneth Frye, representative of the San Diego, Arizona and Eastern Railway said he had made a recommendation to the railroad's San Francisco office that the Chamber of Commerce's offer for the firm's right-of-way for local parking be accepted. The chamber would clear and oil the area as soon as practicable if the lease is accepted, chamber president Dr. Robert Swenson said. Lease is for $100 a year rental.

Faucher did not indicate what the program would be for this week.

ALBERT BORQUIN, NATIVE OF FRANCE, PASSES

Albert G. Borquin, 66, 6675 McArthur Street, a retired toolmaker, died Monday at his home.

A native of France, Mr. Borquin is survived by his wife, Alice, and a son Paul who lives in Pennsylvania.

Services were conducted by Conrad Mortuary followed by interment.

Water Pressure Falls as New Tank Is Installed

The new three million gallon water tank on Dictionary Hill was put into service last week by the Lemon Grove Water Works to stabilize the water supply generally throughout the Spring Valley-Casa de Oro area. Residents immediately adjacent to the tank, however, complained to the board of directors of the district Tuesday that their water pressure had dropped since the tank went into operation.

A delegation, headed by George W. Polk, from the Bancroft Point area, complained that irrigating trees had become virtually impossible since the tank went into service. Previously the area had been served by pumping into a closed system, but now draws on the new tank without aid from the pumps.

M. J. Shelton, chief engineer of the district, said that about 3000 acres of land are served by the new tank, and that increasing water demand throughout that area made the tank necessary to store water during low-use hours for delivery during peak-demand periods. It is intended to prevent failure of water supply during heavy use periods, he said

The Bancroft Point area is at an elevation which reduced pressure to a low point, and the residents asked that the district maintain water pressure at least as high as it was previously.

Directors Bob Rundell and Harry Griffen argued that the district is obligated to maintain the previously existing level of pressure.

Shelton said this would eventually require installation of a haydro-pneumatic system to serve the area. The board instructed that the area be cut off the new tank and returned to the old pump system during a portion of each day to assist residents with irrigating. During the rest of the day, the tank will be kept in full operation to provide increased supply of water throughout Spring Valley and Lemon Grove. It also instructed that an engineering study be made of a high pressure system to serve the high-elevation areas.

GAVEL PASSES AS LOCAL ROTARY MARKS FIRST BIRTHDATE

W. Earl Smart, publicity chairman and scribe for the Lemon Grove Rotary Reminder, the weekly club publication of the Rotary Club, reported that a "Demotion Party" was held for the retiring president last week at Michael's.

A program of "stepping-down" harrassment was meted out as the new officers were seated, Smart said.

Griffen became president of the club when he spearheaded its organization a year ago. Smart said the club had increased membership 40%.

In addition to the above officers (the retiring president becomes a member of the board) seated also were Dr. Harry Sorterberg, vice president; Andy Benson, secretary; William Zilker, treasurer; Charles Serr and Roy Lane, members of the board of directors. Earl Smart, local attorney, remains as scribe.

The Dimmer VIEW

By MAX GOODWIN

Lemon Grove looks a little cleaner these days, and it does because of a remarkable fellow about whom I know a remarkable story.

For years, local businessmen have been dusting off their sidewalks and policing the area immediately in front of their places of business. It wasn't entirely satisfactory because about every third businessman missed his chore four or five days a week.

The town looked so lousy that a movie was made, in color, and this picture got a wide showing wherever a horrible example was needed to implement the call for a clean and incorporated city.

A 44 year old World War II vet, Harold Mitchell, who worked as mop-up man at Michael's saw the film early this year when it was being shown for one of the service clubs. Mitchell was plying his craft at the time . . . that of mopping up some refuse which had been spilled in the meeting room.

From the night he saw the picture, Mitchell became a dedicated man. He decided to do something about the filth and litter of beer cans, weeds, handbills and garbage that seemed to engulf the town, so he embarked on a one man clean-up campaign.

Every morning he started raking the streets and sweeping down sidewalks. Because he has nine children, varying in size from a six month old infant to two girls in college, he needed money. He approached most of the businesspeople for a token contribution, about $1 a week, I believe, and many of them responded. I am certain he makes less money for this more rigorous work than he made at Michael's. He also has the chore of attempting to collect it and you know how that is. He said he was lucky when he collected $25 a week.

He has a nine year old daughter who is paralyzed. He and his wife Mary idolize her. They contribute all they can rake together for the two girls who are attending the University of Michigan.

That is certainly an acid test as to an indomitable spirit and rugged American character, but that is not all!

One day he pulled up his shirt and showed me his belly. There was not a square inch of it that was not scarred. Big jagged rips were made across his chest and stomach when he was hit with a Jap 75 mm shell during the landing on Bouganville. He lay in a hospital in Denver for four years and eight months and is now considered disabled by the armed forces, but he doesn't think he is.

Every morning at 3 you can see a 1937 De Soto sedan parked along Broadway. In it will be at least one sleeping youngster. Somewhere along the stem you'll see a couple, Harold and Mary Mitchell, sweeping, raking and picking up the refuse. You'll also hear Harold's voice and Mary's laughter. They are happy at what they're doing because they're doing it together. They are a remarkable and happy family.

Winner Fails to Claim Prize at Grossmont Auxiliary Drawing

Who has number 004164 in Grossmont Hospital Women's Auxiliary's "welcome mat" drawing? This is the lucky number drawn; but, neither name, address, nor phone number is on the stub. Tickets for the drawing were sold at the auxiliary's garden tour May 21-22 and country fair, June 25. Holder of the winning number should notify Mrs. L. F. Andersen, HO 6-7485, by Wednesday, July 13. After that date, another number will be drawn.

McGuire Relatives Visit Lemon Grove In Strength

The relatives moved in on the McGuires last week. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. McGuire, who live at 3210 Kempf Street, announced that three brothers and an aunt and uncle are visiting them.

Brothers are D. M. Thomas of Spring Valley; Harold C. Thomas of Dayton, Ohio and William L. Thomas of Toledo, Ohio.

Aunt and uncle F. P. Craig are from Martinsville, W. Va. It is the first reunion in ten years, the McGuires said.

PUBLISHER SAYS PARENTS FAIL TO HELP STUDENTS

"Home life for students has changed more than methods of teaching," Si Casady, publisher of the El Cajon Valley News told the Lemon Grove Kiwanis Club last week.

"Schools get our children during the morning, teevee takes over during the afternoon, and the baby sitter has them for the evening. They miss out on parental training that our generation got," Casady said.

At a burlesque you can see a lot of ham and legs.

LUTHERAN PASTOR ELSTER TO LEAVE

W. LEROY ELSTER

The Rev. W. LeRoy Elster, pastor of Lemon Grove Lutheran Church at the corner of Skyline and Alton Drives, concludes five and a half years as pastor of the congregation Sunday, July 10. Elster has accepted a call to organize and build another new congregation in a new field at Kalispell, Montana.

Elster came to Lemon Grove in 1949 from Bottineau, North Dakota to organized and build the present congregation. Under his leadership the present congregation of close to 500 members was developed. The parsonage was constructed in 1950 and the first unit of the church was completed in the spring of 1951, while the third unit, the Sunday School wing will be dedicated this Sunday evening.

"It has been a most enjoyable experience working in growing community of Lemon Grove," Elster said. He will preach his farewell sermon this Sunday at 8:30 and 11 a.m. services, and will leave for his new field of work during the middle of the week.

Rev. H. C. Bakken of Chicago, Illinois, has been called as the new pastor of the congregation, and will conduct his first service September 11. During the few weeks of interim, Rev. Morris San of Los Angeles will conduct the worship services.

Sunday School Wing To Be Dedicated Sunday

Formal dedication of the Lemon Grove Lutheran Sunday School wing at the corner of Skyline and Alton Drives will take place Sunday, July 10 at 8 p.m.

Rev. Ansle Severtson, pastor of Our Saviors Lutheran Church in San Diego will deliver the dedication address. Rev. W. LeRoy Elster, pastor of the congregation, will conduct the dedication service.

The Sunday School wing, recently completed, contains a social room with walls finished in cedar and has a fireplace at one end. In addition, there are several Sunday School rooms and a pastor's office.

A second story will be constructed at a later date, which will contain nine additional Sunday School rooms. The construction work was done by the men of the congregation under the leadership of the building coordinators: James Paul and Rush Rowley.

Colored slides showing the history of the congregation's building program from the beginning to the present, will be shown by pastor Elster before the dedication service.

The Stalnakers have lived in Spring Valley but a short time, coming from Claremont. Mr. Stalnaker is in the TV repair business.

GUYS AND GALS

Tears flow more copiously from women's eyes than from men's at every age level except the decade from 30 to 40. An explanation for those 10 crying years for the males? Well—turnabout is fair play!

The list will be published the last three weeks in July. It will contain lists of properties on which Irrigation District taxes were not paid by Monday, July 27, the delinquent date.

LEGION AUXILIARY TO HEAR 'GIRL STATER' REPORT

Miss Pauline Harper, Girl Stater of the La Mesa American Legion Auxiliary, Unit No. 282, will give her report at the regular meeting scheduled for Friday at 8 p.m. at the La Mesa American Legion Hall.

CARR'S CORNER

The English celebrate the king's (or queen's) birthday, not on the day that he (or she) was born, but on a summer day on which a bit of sunshine may be expected. On that day H. M. hands out The Honors . . . a knighthood for this scientist or that actor or for Mr. Gotrocks; a baroncy for Sir so and so. Finally an aide announces the names of the tradesmen who have been selected to be known as Purveyors to H. R. H., be it tea, cheese or whisky.

Well, the other day we found ourselves in a situation resembling that of those fortunate individuals. We have been named Purveyors of Pyrex to the Good Citizens of Lemon Grove. How 'bout that? To paraphrase Mr. Pepys, we were surprised but not amazed. We knew that we were doing a good job in Pyrex and carried a more complete line than anybody but we didn't know that their spy had turned us in. They gave us a pretty little electric sign which says that we are the Authorized Pyrex Dealers of Lemon Grove and we put it in our window so that all and sundry may know of our distinction. You may see it there, proudly shining like our eyes and cheeks.

Did you fly your flag on the Fourth? The few that we saw about town made a brave if not overly-strong showing. It seems to us that the flag grows more beautiful each year and if you did not fly one this time, we recommend that you do so on September 12th Or even next Sunday. It will do your heart good.
